

Blizzard Bag Activities

for Mrs. Ewing's little "snow-kids"!

1st Snow Day = Lesson 1: Take a walk around your house and count the number of windows you have in your house. Try to write the number down on paper.

2nd Snow Day = Lesson 2: Have a mug of hot chocolate with Mom, or Dad, or Grammy or Grampy or the babysitter. Count out 5 marshmallows for each person's cup!

If you don't have hot chocolate or marshmallows, count out 5 of some snack (crackers, cheese cubes, grapes, ect.) for each person at the table.

3rd Snow Day = Lesson 3: Grab a book or newspaper. See if you can identify the letters in your name. If you can do that, see if you can find the rest of the letters of the alphabet!

Look how smart you are!!

Happy Snow Day! Have fun, I know I will be, and go out and build a snowman with a grown up if you can! See you soon 😊 -Mrs. Ewing
