8th Grade- A job well done to our 7 students traveled to OCU to take the Compass test for college course study in the fall! All seven qualified to take college classes through Ohio Christian University.

Speech Meet- RCCA will be having our annual Speech Meet soon!

Once your child has selected a poem, Bible memory verse, or a fable and folklore, and we have received consent, we will make a copy of it for them to study and memorize. They will recite their speech at our in-house Speech Meet on Thursday, March 31, 2016 at 9:00am. They are judged by how well they memorized their selection, eye contact with the audience, poise, how loud they speak, enunciation, etc. They can receive a Superior (ribbon and medal), an Excellent, or a Good ribbon. They will not be judged to receive places.

Parenting Tip- You Can Do All God Wants You to Do

God wants you to choose to commit your entire life and everything you have to him. More than once Jesus said it was better to lose your life for His sake than to gain the world. Purposely “loving your life”—putting aside your own wants in favor of God’s agenda—is hardly something that comes naturally to most of us, no matter how old we are.

But Jesus said doing this is better than gaining the whole world! You can help your children see why. Explain that turning their lives over to God is more rewarding than running things on their own, because they can trust Him to take better care of them than they can themselves.

Help them to know how to do this, too—by surrendering their lives to God every day, even minute by minute when necessary. They can learn to let Him be Lord in reality, not just in name.
