Poetry Contest- Two RCCA students received special recognition for the poems they entered in the Chillicothe and Ross County Public library 2016 Poetry Contest. Khayta Diongue's poem titled "Cheese Puffs!" was awarded first place, and Quinton Marcus's poem titled "Fast Food Fantasy" was awarded third place out of 47 entries in grades 3-5. They were honored at a reception held April 13th. All poems entered were published in a book titled Life Undefined: A Book of Poems by Ross County Youth, 2016. Other RCCA students whose poems were published in this book include Ella Strauch, Lily Cruze, Lydia Castle, Jozie Zickafoose, Lillian Detty, Delana Relli,, Aiden Peecher, Annie Beth Scott, and Matty Fout. Congratulations to our poets.

Book Fair- Our Bogo Book Fair has been going on all week and will end on Friday by 11:15. If you haven't had a chance to shop time is running out!

Parenting Tip- Too Busy for Fun?

"Mommy, come play with me." Oh, sweetie, I can't. I'm making dinner." "Daddy, will you come push me on the swing?" I'm in the middle of changing the oil on the care. Can you wait?" How many times have you had to say no to your child? It seems we have to say no more times than we say yes. Yet the relationship you nurture with your child is the legacy you're passing on to him or her. One of the best ways to develop that relationship is by having fun together. While you are having fun, we encourage you to seek opportunities to do two things: teach spiritual lessons in the midst of your fun time and seek opportunities for fun time that involves spiritual content.
