Parenting Tip- The Teen Years

At the end of this 10-12 stage, you need to be letting your children progressively take more responsibility for their own spiritual growth. The teen years they are heading into are an entirely different place of life, and your role as a parent needs to change to match it. Your role moves toward becoming more like a coach, as opposed to an instructor and trainer. You need to walk alongside them and assist in their growth and discovery.

Who will also confirm you until the end, blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful, through whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord.
