Chapel News: Operation Christmas Child shoeboxes were blessed and sent off to bless and spread the love of Jesus. We collected a total of 249 shoeboxes. Our Zion campus returned 14 shoeboxes! Way to go Zion campus! Thank you to all that participated.

Special" Thank You": To Dr. Lale for volunteering your time to check temperatures several days a week at our Zion campus. Our parents and students appreciate your time and dedication to RCCA.

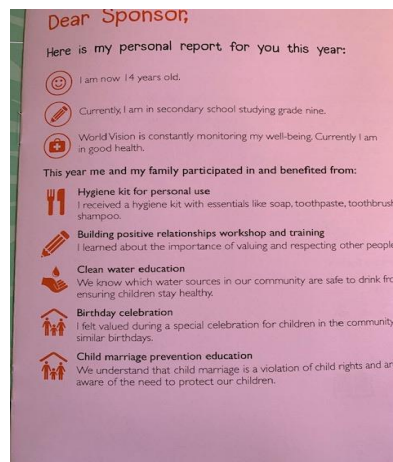

But to us, God revealed them through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God.

Happy Thanksgiving from a Kid's Perspective

Sponsored by RCCA National Honor Society and Junior Honor Society

Food Banks often have canned good and non-perishable items that are a blessing to the receiving family, but rarely do they have the extras that make a child smile. We would like to be the catalyst behind a child's smile this Thanksgiving by partnering with the Zion Baptist Church food pantry ministry. Please bring the non-perishable, kid-pleasing items below to school between Nov. 16-20th. The Zion staff will add these extra items to the Thanksgiving food boxes to be distributed on Nov. 23.

Our school wide goal is 300 items.

The grade with the most items will receive a jeans day on Monday, Nov. 23.
Those students will also receive a special treat at lunch.

Food List Ideas:

- *Little Debbie cakes
- *Individual wrapped bags of chips
- *Boxed Mac & Cheese
- *Fruit roll-ups
- *Teddy Grahams, Animal Crackers, (any kind of cookies)
- *Chez-its
- *candy bars
- *pop tarts
- *cereal

NOTE: we will reach our goal if each student brings 5 items.
